EMPOWERING —SUCCESS—

Empowering successful careers for woman in natural gas.

OCT 13–14 SAN ANTONIO, TX

This is how

SGA Women's Leadership Symposium. Successful careers are rewarding, help you achieve financial stability, and make a difference in the world around you. Contributing to this definition is having the flexibility to integrate work and life successfully. Your successful career may differ from how others define success, and this symposium celebrates those unique careers women have forged in the natural gas industry.

- Skills Development – leadership skills defining success in communication, negotiation and strategic thinking
- Empowerment – providing awareness, tools, and inspiration to succeed in a variety of roles in the natural gas industry
- Networking – creating opportunities for women to share experiences and build professional relationships across multiple sectors of the industry
- Continued Support – ongoing support and resources for women in the industry after the event

OPENING KEYNOTE

LEVEL UP: DESIGNING YOUR NEXT LEADERSHIP BREAKTHROUGH

TUESDAY 8:30 AM – 10:30 AM

NICK TOBEY

*Executive Director of Executive
Education, University of Oklahoma*

Start your day with a session that goes beyond leadership inspiration and into meaningful growth. In this interactive keynote, Nick Tobey introduces a research-based approach to vertical development, focused on how you think, not just what you know. Designed for women navigating uncertainty, change, or their next big step, this session challenges assumptions, invites honest dialogue, and helps you clarify what's next in your leadership journey. Come ready to stretch your mindset and engage with your peers—you'll leave with tools and insights to lead with greater agility and intention.

FIRESIDE CHAT

LEADING THROUGH PURPOSE: A PERSONAL JOURNEY IN PUBLIC SERVICE

TUESDAY 11:00 AM – 12:45 PM

TIFFANY ZIEMER

*Senior Policy Advisor, PHMSA Member,
NASFM Energy & Industry*

Tiffany Ziemer brings a deeply personal and inspiring perspective to leadership—one shaped by decades of navigating complex challenges, fostering resilience, and breaking ground in a mission-driven environment. In this keynote, Tiffany shares the defining moments and lessons from her journey as a leader in public service, offering insights into what it means to lead with integrity, adaptability, and heart, especially in high-stakes, high-impact roles.

This conversation isn't about policies or rulemakings—it's about the human side of leadership. Attendees will hear how Tiffany navigated turning points in her career, built trust within complex teams, and stayed grounded in purpose despite adversity and change. Whether you're early in your leadership journey or guiding teams through transformation, Tiffany's candid reflections will leave you with renewed clarity about how personal values and professional courage can shape not only a career but an entire culture.

SESSION

BEYOND THE UPDATE: HOW LEADERS BUILD TRUST THROUGH COMMUNICATION

TUESDAY 1:45 PM – 2:45 PM
