

ENGINE EMISSIONS
STACK TESTING and ANALYZER WORKSHOP

September 18-19, 2014
Alegacy Equipment, LLC.

1300 Alegacy Place
Waller, Texas 77484
Floor 2

Wednesday, September 18

8:00am – 8:30am Breakfast

8:30am – 8:45am Welcome & Introductions
Martha Stedman, SGA

8:45 – 10:00am Introduction to Engine Testing
Opening remarks Bob Nickles

10:00am – 10:15am Break

10:15am – 12:00pm Catalyst 101: Technology and Practice
Jordan Patrick, Catalytic Combustion Inc.

12:00pm – 1:00pm Lunch

1:00pm – 3:50pm Emission Data Interpretation & Calculations
Tom Graham, Air Hygiene University

ANTI-TRUST REMINDER

Southern Gas Association policy is to comply with federal and state antitrust laws. Participants in SGA meetings and programs are not to discuss industry-wide or individual company prices (current or projected) or matters relating to pricing such as costs, profits, wages, market allocation, or other competitively sensitive information. Compliance with the antitrust laws is a requirement for SGA membership and responsibility for compliance rests with each member and the SGA staff. Participants have an obligation to terminate any discussion, seek legal counsel's advice, or, if necessary, terminate any meeting if the discussion might be construed to raise antitrust risks.

3:50pm – 4:00pm Break

4:00pm – 4:30 pm Open Q&A and Roundtable Discussion

Thursday, September 19

8:00am – 8:30am Breakfast

8:30am – 12:00pm
(Break will be built in.) Use of a Portable Emissions Analyzer for Compliance Testing & Engine Diagnostics
Tom Graham, Air Hygiene University
Craig McKim, Testo
Nick Orvis, ECOM America

12:00pm – 1pm Lunch

1:00pm – 4:15pm
(Break will be built in.) Portable Analyzer Field Test
Craig McKim, Testo
Larry Bines, Testo
Nick Orvis, ECOM America
Tom Graham, Air Hygiene University

4:15pm – 4:30pm Open Panel and Roundtable Discussion

ANTI-TRUST REMINDER

Southern Gas Association policy is to comply with federal and state antitrust laws. Participants in SGA meetings and programs are not to discuss industry-wide or individual company prices (current or projected) or matters relating to pricing such as costs, profits, wages, market allocation, or other competitively sensitive information. Compliance with the antitrust laws is a requirement for SGA membership and responsibility for compliance rests with each member and the SGA staff. Participants have an obligation to terminate any discussion, seek legal counsel's advice, or, if necessary, terminate any meeting if the discussion might be construed to raise antitrust risks.